

THE SANTA ROSA MUSIC DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES
MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS THAT ARE AVAILABLE FOR 2021-22

In the Music Department at SRJC we have over $30,000 in music scholarships for qualified individuals who are experienced as band, orchestra, choral and piano students. We welcome students who will attend SRJC for the first time in the fall of 2021 AND we are looking forward to hearing from our returning and continuing SRJC students too!

Recorded Vocal & Instrumental Auditions are due: Monday, May 3, 2021

For complete details and all of the forms that you will need, please visit our SRJC Music Department website: <https://music.santarosa.edu/scholarships>

YOU DO NOT NEED TO BE A MUSIC MAJOR AT SRJC TO QUALIFY!

AWARDS ARE PAID HALF IN THE FALL AND HALF IN THE SPRING UPON VERIFICATION EACH SEMESTER THAT THE STUDENT IS CONTINUING AT SRJC AND IS ENROLLED IN THE MUSICAL ENSEMBLE DESIGNATED IN THE AWARD LETTER.

AWARD WINNERS WILL:

- 1.) enroll and perform in a large music ensemble designated in the award letter by the SRJC Music Department. The audition will demonstrate the student's ability on his/her primary instrument! Ensemble information is included on the application.
- 2.) maintain GPA and enrollment status at SRJC in accordance with the criteria for each individual award. This can be full-time (12 units), or in some cases part-time (6 – 11.5 units) as required.

Applicants are limited to performing an audition in a single discipline. Please choose to perform as either a singer, or on a specific instrument. Music majors who wish to audition for scholarships must do so in the discipline that matches his/her applied music studies and ensemble experience.

New and Continuing SRJC students are eligible for awards ranging from $300 - $1,000.

Transferring SRJC Music Students are eligible for transfer scholarships ranging from $425 to a 2-year renewable award of $2500. SRJC Music Students please note that Transfer Scholarship Applications are due: Friday, April 30, 2021! There is no audition requirement.
